I understand that the information submitted above will be used to reserve dates and times on the church calendar, clergy, wedding committee personnel, musicians, and security, and is as accurate and complete as possible at this time.

I also understand that changes in date and time must be approved by the church business office and clergy. Deposits made will be forfeited if notice is not received at least 30 days before the service date submitted. If a cancellation or change of date request is received at least 30 days before and the new date is not available, deposits will be refunded. Note: deposits are non-refundable if Centenary is reserved as a backup venue for location weddings.

In case the facilities are unavailable due to circumstances beyond the control of Centenary United Methodist Church, including, but not limited to, the suspension of worship services by the Bishop of the Western North Carolina Conference, circumstances that would endanger the safety of participants, any public or government proclaimed suspension of gatherings of large groups, Centenary United Methodist Church will refund all deposits paid or transfer the deposits paid to a future acceptable date and time.
